VOLUNTEERING

AARP DRIVER SAFETY

Become a part of the safe-driving solution in your community. Help others get on the road to safety as an AARP Driver Safety instructor or coordinator.

AARP FOUNDATION EXPERIENCE CORPS

Put your time, knowledge, and talent to use by volunteering to tutor and mentor young people. Experience Corps is a proven program made up of volunteers 50 and older who help struggling students become great readers before they finish the third grade.

AARP FOUNDATION

Here when you need us. AARP Foundation, AARP's charitable affiliate, works to ensure that low-income older adults have nutritious food, affordable housing, a steady income, and strong and sustaining social bonds. The Foundation collaborates with individuals and organizations who share a commitment to innovation and a passion for problem-solving. Supporting its efforts with vigorous legal advocacy, the Foundation creates and advances effective solutions that help struggling older adults secure the essentials. The programs and services of AARP Foundation require funding beyond your membership dues. Through the generosity of members, we are able to help vulnerable seniors recover their confidence, regain a foothold, and transform their lives.

AARP STATE OFFICES

Get more involved, no matter where you live. AARP has offices in every state, D.C., Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Find your local AARP office for news, events, programs, and volunteer opportunities of interest to you.

CREATE THE GOOD

Find virtual volunteer opportunities to share your life experiences, skills, and passions in your community. Post your own service projects and recruit helping hands for free.

CONTACTS

Need to get in touch with AARP? Want to update your contact information? How about adding a spouse to your membership account? Whatever you're looking for, we're here to help. For faster service, please write your AARP membership number on all correspondence and have it available when calling AARP.

HOW TO CREATE AN ONLINE ACCOUNT

Visit aarp.org/createaccount and fill out the registration form. Then, you can log in to view or edit the details of your membership. Once logged in, click your name in the red banner at the top of the page and then select My Account. In the Account Details tab, you can update your personal information.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

Please let us know six weeks in advance if you intend to move. There are a few easy ways you can inform us of any upcoming address changes.

Online: The easiest way to update your address is online at aarp.org. You will need to create an account first at aarp.org/createaccount.

By mail: If possible, please include your mailing label from AARP The Magazine or AARP Bulletin when sending your change-of-address correspondence to the address at the bottom of this page.

Post office: A change-of-address form is available from your local post office. It's an easy way to notify us and others. Or you can submit your address changes to the USPS at moversguide.usps.com.

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL

AARP will send you renewal notices before your membership expires. Renewing prior to your membership expiration ensures that everything will continue uninterrupted. For your convenience, you are now able to renew your membership online.

PRIVACY

AARP is committed to maintaining your trust by respecting and protecting your privacy. This Privacy Notice highlights how we collect, use, share, and protect personal data and the choices you have to limit how we share your personal data and communicate with you. Please visit aarp.org/privacy to review our full Privacy Policy, which contains additional details.

DATA PROTECTION

We use administrative, technical, and physical security measures designed to protect personal data against accidental, unlawful, or unauthorized destruction, loss, alteration, access, disclosure, or use.

DATA SHARING

With some exceptions such as those described here, we do not share your personal data with unaffiliated entities (entities that are not owned or controlled by AARP) without your consent. We may share personal data with companies we have selected to provide AARP-branded products or services and/or discounts to AARP members. Some of these providers pay a fee for the right to use our brand and to access our membership list and related data. These fees are used to support our nonprofit mission. These providers are contractually required to treat the personal data AARP provides as confidential, and to use the personal data only to offer, provide, maintain, and analyze the contracted products, services, or discounts to AARP members. Some of these providers may collect personal data about our members through their own interactions with such members and may share some or all of this data with AARP to help us provide more effective and personalized service. These providers' data-collection and sharing practices are governed by their own privacy policies. We may occasionally share personal data with select, unaffiliated nonprofit organizations when we believe such data sharing is in the best interest of our members and nonprofit mission. We may share personal data with vendors and social media networks we hire to provide services or perform business functions on our behalf, but these vendors are contractually obligated to use such personal data only to provide the services AARP has requested they perform on our behalf. Finally, we may share personal data pursuant to legal requirements as necessary to protect ourselves, our members, or others, or in connection with a business transfer or substantial transaction such as a sale, merger, consolidation, or bankruptcy.

DATA COLLECTION & USE

We collect and use personal data from or about you to help us support our nonprofit mission and serve our membership, including to communicate with you through various channels; deliver the information, programs, and products/services you request; and evaluate the effectiveness of our programs and membership offerings. When you apply for membership, we initially collect basic personal data from you, such as your name, contact information, and date of birth. Throughout your membership, we collect additional personal data, such as information about your participation in AARP activities and member services. We collect this data through your interactions with us offline and through our websites and applications. We may also collect data about you from other sources.

YOUR CHOICES

We strive to provide you reasonable choices regarding our collection, use, and sharing of your personal data. We provide you access to review and correct your personal data, provide you options regarding how we share personal data with the providers of AARP-branded products or services and/or discounts and unaffiliated nonprofit organizations, and give you options for how we communicate with you, among other choices.

You may contact us at any time regarding these choices as follows:

Visit us at: help.aarp.org

Call us at: 888-687-2277

Text us at: 833-259-2277 (AARP)

Write to us at: AARP Membership Center, 3200 East Carson Street, Lakewood, CA 90712

Please visit aarp.org/privacy to review our full Privacy Policy, which contains additional details.

AARP member benefits are provided by third parties, not by AARP or its affiliates. Providers pay a royalty fee to AARP for the use of its intellectual property. These fees are used for the general purposes of AARP. Some provider offers are subject to change and may have restrictions. Please contact the provider directly for details.
